In this box, draw a picture about the most interesting parts of your story. Put as many people, places, things or ideas as will help tell about this story.

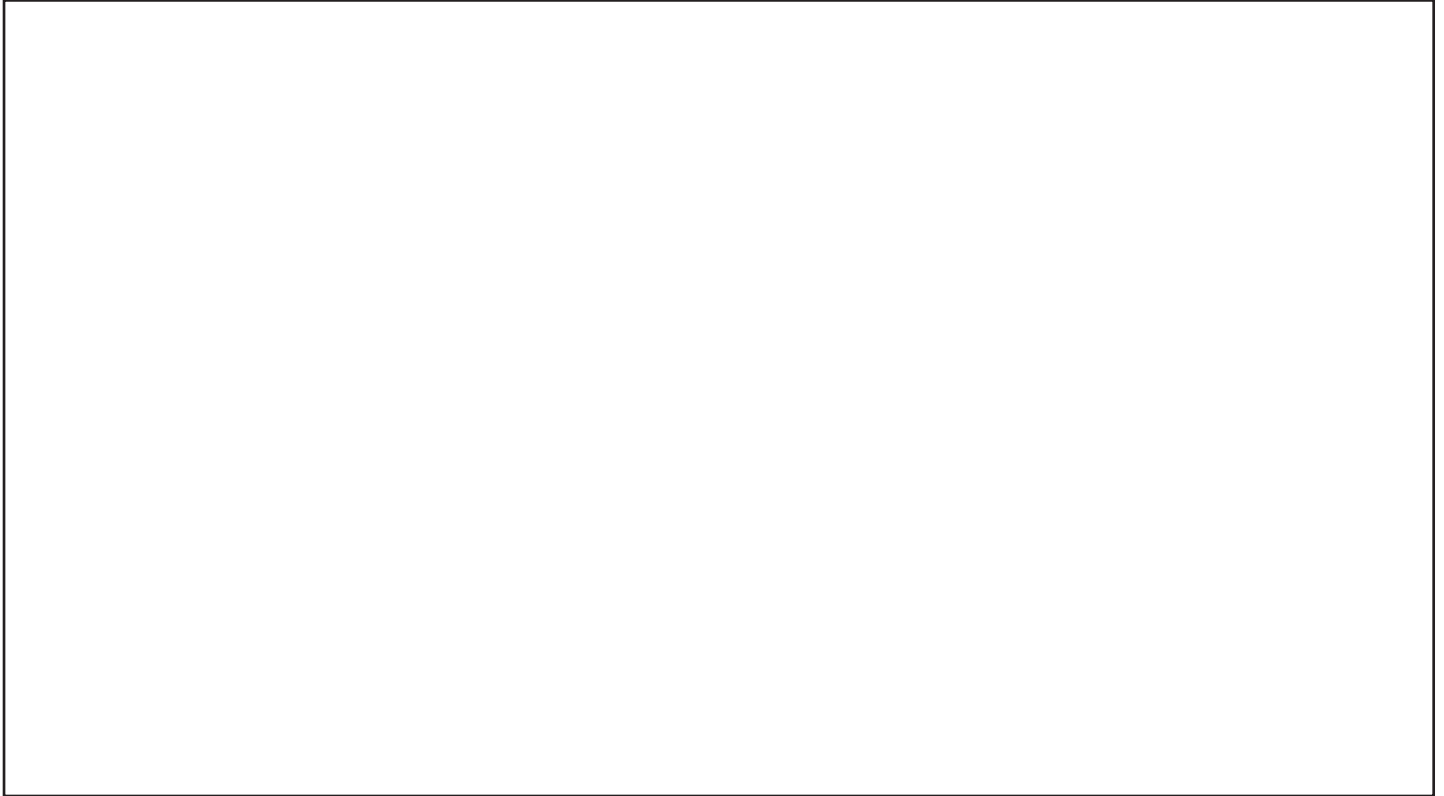

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a student to draw a picture related to their story.

When you are done drawing, take this paper with you and find a partner for a Pair Share. (Your teacher will tell you how to find a partner.)

Turn this paper over to the other side for more directions.

READY. SET. TELL!

Tell your story to your partner. Be sure to listen well to their story. You may ask questions about anything you didn't understand after the story is told. When you have both shared, return to your own seat and draw a picture of their story.

If there is time, draw a picture that shows someone using good listening skills.
